MEDIA

MEDIA INFORMATION

For media information, credential/interview requests or questions, please contact Tonya Alleyne (404.954.6645 or Tonya.Alleyne@atlantadream.net) or Sprague Paynter (404.954.6660 or Sprague.Paynter@atlantadream.net) in the Dream Media Relations Department. The fax number is 404.954.6666.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS: All requests should be submitted in writing to the Dream Media Relations Department at least 24 HOURS PRIOR to the game you wish to cover (3 p.m. on Friday for Saturday or Sunday games) via e-mail. NO CREDENTIAL REQUESTS WILL BE HONORED ON GAME DAY. Credentials are issued to accredited members of the media who are on-assignment to cover a specific game. Please confirm all credentials with the Dream Media Relations Department prior to arriving at Philips Arena. Credentials may be picked up at the primary media entrance beginning 2.5 hours prior to game time. Credentials must be worn and visible at all times and are non-transferable.

Parking Lot B and you will find additional press parking at that location.

MEDIA ENTRANCE: Follow the same directions to Philips Arena, and the entrance is on Park Avenue West (located on the right) before you get to Media Parking Lot A. The press room is located directly on the right as you enter the media will call entrance area.

MEDIA WORKROOM: The Dream Media Workroom is located to the right of the Media Entrance off Park Avenue West at Philips Arena. It will open 2.5 hours prior to tipoff. Press room usage is only available to those with a valid Dream media credential. Phone lines, fax service and wireless service are provided free of charge.

PRE AND POST GAME INTERVIEWS: In accordance with the WNBA policy, the Dream's and the visitor's locker rooms will be open to members of the media for 30 minutes ending one hour before the start of the game (e.g., media access will be granted from 5:30-6 p.m. for a 7 p.m. game). Locker rooms are opened to the media after the game following a 10-minute cooling down period and will remain open for 30 minutes. Players and coaches are available for interviews at those times. Only working members of the press with valid credentials will be admitted to the locker rooms. ABSOLUTELY NO PHOTOGRAPHS OR CELL PHONE USE ALLOWED DURING MEDIA LOCKER ROOM ACCESS PERIOD.

GAME NOTES AND STATISTICS: Pre-game press notes, media guides and line-up sheets will be available in the interview room prior to each game. Game statistics will be distributed to the working media twice during each half, as well as halftime and postgame. Postgame quotes and notes are distributed as quickly as possible following the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Limited space is available for photographers along each baseline, with exact locations to be determined on game day. For the safety of the players and in accordance with league rules, photographers must remain seated at least four feet behind the baseline at all times. Use of a flash is prohibited. ABSOLUTELY NO TRIPODS ALLOWED. Photographers must stay in their designated areas and are asked to be considerate of print media and fans directly in their viewing area.

PRACTICE POLICY: The Dream will practice at Suwanee Sports Academy (3640 Burnette Rd Suwanee, GA 30024). Approximately the final 30 minutes of each practice will be open to the media. Coaches and players will be available for brief interviews immediately after practice. Please contact the Dream Media Relations Department to confirm practice times, sites and the availability of players and coaches.

BROADCAST TEAM

ART ECKMAN, BROADCAST PLAY-BY-PLAY

A veteran in the industry, Art Eckman enters his second season as the voice of the Dream, serving as the team's broadcast play-by-play announcer.

Eckman has played numerous roles in the broadcast world for a variety of organizations. Locally, he served as a Sports Director/Anchor for WXIA-TV from 1978-1991 and served as the play-by-play announcer for the Atlanta Hawks from 1991-1993. As a sportscaster and writer for ESPN and ESPN2, he served as a host announcer for the Chick-fil-A Bowl Preview Show from 2000-20005 and as a play-by-play announcer for Supercross/Motocross for ten years. Most recently, Eckman served as a producer, writer and sportscaster for the Outdoor Channel.

An active member in the Atlanta community, Eckman has been a supporter of autism research and support programs. He served on the Board of Directors for Georgia Special Olympics and on the Advisory Board for Special Education for the state of Georgia.

LACHINA ROBINSON, BROADCAST ANALYST

LaChina Robinson enters her second season as broadcast analyst for the Dream. Robinson began her broadcasting career as a color analyst on WREK-FM for Georgia Tech women's basketball away games, a position she has maintained since 2005. She recently made her television debut as a color analyst for CSS and has also served as a host of the MaChelle Joseph Coach's show on ramblinwreck.com.

Robinson completed her sixth season with the Georgia Tech women's basketball program and her first as Special Assistant to Head Coach MaChelle Joseph in 2008-09. Prior to last season, Robinson was the Director of Basketball operations from 2004-2008 and held administrative positions from 2003-2004.

The Alexandria (VA) native earned her bachelor's degree in sociology in 2002 from Wake Forest University, where she was a four-year starter for the Demon Deacon basketball team. A member of the 1999 ACC All-Freshman team, Robinson finished her career third all-time in blocked shots and 15th in rebounds while being named to the ACC Honor Roll on three occasions, including 2002, when she was named Academic All-ACC.

J. RONALD TERWILLIGER
OWNER

Ron Terwilliger is the principal owner of the Atlanta Dream franchise. Terwilliger is a long-time executive in the real estate industry who has worked extensively to provide adequate and affordable housing to families. In 1986, he became Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Trammell Crow Residential – a position he still holds. Trammell Crow Residential is a national residential real estate company and is the largest developer of multi-family housing in the United States. Terwilliger is responsible for all residential development and operations conducted by Trammell Crow Residential in 23 offices throughout the United States.

A past chairman of the Urban Land Institute, Terwilliger continues to serve on the organization's Governance Committee. Currently, he is the Chairman Emeritus of the Wharton Real Estate Center and the Chairman Elect of the International Board of Directors of Habitat for Humanity. He also serves as a member of the Executive Committee of Enterprise Community Partners Board of Trustees.

Previously, Terwilliger was the chairman of the Atlanta Neighborhood Development Partnership and has also served as the chairman of the National Association of Homebuilders Multifamily Leadership Board.

An avid philanthropist, Terwilliger has recently made a $5 million gift to establish the ULI Terwilliger Center for Workforce Housing. Similarly, a $5 million gift to the Enterprise Foundation prompted the inception of the Enterprise Terwilliger Fund, which aims to create 2,000 affordable homes annually.

In a previous foray into sports, Mr. Terwilliger founded and owned the Atlanta Attack professional soccer team from 1989-1991.

Terwilliger is an honor graduate of the United States Naval Academy. At Navy, he lettered in baseball and basketball, serving as Navy basketball captain and Academic All-American in 1963. He has stayed connected to his alma mater by holding the director position of the Naval Academy Foundation, Subcommittee Chairman of the Naval Academy Athletic Committee.

After serving five years in the Navy, he received his Master of Business Administration degree with High Distinction from the Harvard Graduate School of Business, where he was elected a Baker Scholar.

A native of Arlington, Virginia, he and his wife Fran split time between their homes in Atlanta, Key Largo Florida and Long Island New York. Terwilliger has two daughters, Bonnie and Tracy and four grandchildren, all of whom reside in Atlanta. Bonnie's children are Griffin and Ava. Tracy's children are Avery and Savannah.

BILL BOLEN

PRESIDENT AND COO

William (Bill) H. Bolen Jr. enters his second season as President & COO of the Dream. Previously, Bolen served the team as a client while a Partner at TopRight, a strategic marketing consulting firm based in Atlanta, GA. He has served over 60 different consulting clients and has significant sales and marketing experience across a wide range of topics including market evaluation, customer segmentation, customer experience, brand management, and sales force effectiveness.

Prior to co-founding The DaVinci Group back in 1998 that eventually became TopRight, Bill was a manager at McKinsey & Company's Atlanta office. There he helped companies on many different business issues including operations, mergers and acquisitions, sales and marketing, globalization, growth strategies, and cost reduction.

Bolen serves on the Board for several private companies in the Atlanta area as well as on the Board of Advisors for the Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce and the Community Advisory Board for Children's Healthcare of Atlanta. He has served in the past on the Board of Directors of the Georgia Partnership for Excellence in Education and has taught undergraduate and graduate classes at Emory University and Georgia Tech.

In the public policy arena, Bolen has been responsible for leading the consulting effort for a number of metro Atlanta initiatives to improve the quality of life and economic growth in the region. These initiatives include the Metropolitan Atlanta Transportation Initiative, Southeastern Economic Alliance for High Speed Rail, Metro Atlanta Biotech Task Force, Regional Education Task Force, Mayor's Living Wage Task Force, BeltLine Partnership, Mayor's Affordable Workforce Housing Task Force, and Peachtree Corridor Task Force. As a result of these projects, Bolen has been featured in articles in Georgia Trend, Atlanta Business Chronicle, Atlanta Journal Constitution, Business To Business and TechLinks as well as other newspapers across the southeast.

Bolen also serves as Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors for Mt. Paran Christian School in Kennesaw, GA where he has been one of the leaders of the effort to build the school's new 68-acre campus that opened in fall 2003.

Bolen received an M.B.A. with Distinction (top 10%) from the Harvard Business School and graduated summa cum laude from the University of Alabama with a B.S. in Marketing. He also studied at Oxford University in England during his time at Alabama. Bolen received the Outstanding Senior Award for the University of Alabama.

Bill lives with his wife Stacey and children Ansley and Will in Kennesaw, GA. He has spent many hours serving as a youth basketball, baseball, and soccer coach in the community. When not spending time with his family, he enjoys golf, basketball, and Alabama football. He and his family are members of North Metro Church in Kennesaw.

DANIELLE DONEHEW

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Danielle Donehew serves as the Executive Vice President of the Atlanta Dream. Prior to joining the Dream, Donehew spent seven years with the University of Tennessee Lady Volunteers basketball program, most recently as the Assistant Athletics Director for Basketball Operations. She earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial and Systems Engineering from Georgia Tech and a Master of Science in Sports Administration from the University of Tennessee.

Donehew began her career as a Graduate Assistant for the Lady Vols while pursuing her Master's in Sport Administration. In this role, Donehew assisted former Associate Head Coach Mickie DeMoss with recruiting. In her second year with the program, Donehew accepted a position as Director of Basketball Operations where she handled all operational and logistical tasks, working directly with legendary Head Coach, Pat Summitt. Over time, her duties and efficiency grew. For her effort and results, she was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Basketball Operations, where she continued her mastery of operational duties and added a larger role in the area of Development and Financial Gift Giving. Donehew credits Pat Summitt (Head Coach), Joan Cronan (Women's Athletics Director), Donna Thomas (Sr. Associate Athletics Director) and the Tennessee family for developing her skills as a proven sport administrator. Donehew brings a wealth of knowledge from both the basketball and business sides of the women's basketball industry.

Donehew graduated cum laude from Georgia Tech in 2001 with a Bachelor's degree in Industrial and Systems Engineering. She also excelled on the basketball court where she established herself as one of the premier perimeter shooters, finishing third all-time in the Atlantic Coast Conference for three-point field goals made. During the summer after finishing her playing career, Donehew studied abroad at Worchester College in Oxford, England. In her fifth year, Donehew served as a student-assistant coach for the Yellow Jacket women's basketball program under the direction of Head Coach, Agnus Berenato. Donehew applauds Berenato for the importance she placed on people over things.

Donehew was the recipient of numerous accolades during her collegiate career, including: Georgia Tech's NCAA Woman of the Year Representative, Academic All-American, GT Total Person Spotlight Award, GT Robert Cup Winner, GT Basketball Iron Athlete Award, Homer Rice Award Scholarship and an ACC Post Graduate Scholarship. Off the court, she was an active member of Phi Mu Sorority, held executive offices on the GT Student Athlete Advisory Board, and was named the 1999 Georgia Tech Homecoming Queen.

Donehew resides in Atlanta with her black Labrador retriever, Dash. Sir Dash is one of Sally Sue Summitt's seven puppies, born on December 10, 2006.

TONYA ALLEYNE

VICE PRESIDENT OF MEDIA RELATIONS

Tonya Alleyne serves as the Vice President of Media Relations. Prior to joining the Dream, Alleyne served as the head women's basketball coach of the San Diego City College Knights. She also served as the Media Relations Director for the Richmond Rage of the American Basketball League.

Alleyne began her coaching career in 1994 at Arcadia University, a Division III school located in Glenside, Pennsylvania where she served as both head basketball coach and admissions counselor. She has also served as an assistant at the University of South Carolina where she was responsible for the team's marketing and community relations programs, scheduling, equipment, scouting, academics and summer camps. Alleyne then spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Fresno State University where her responsibilities included recruiting, coordinating team travel, scheduling, scouting, and conditioning.

Alleyne began her coaching career following a successful collegiate playing career at Seton Hall University from 1987-1991. Alleyne ranks in seven different statistical categories in the Seton Hall record books, including seventh in there-point field goals made (44) and attempted (124), eighth in assists (312), and ninth in free-throw percentage (.732).

Alleyne earned her bachelor's degree in Communications and a Master of Arts degree in Corporate and Public Communication from Seton Hall.

PAIGE BLANKENSHIP

VP OF MARKETING/BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Paige Blankenship serves as the Vice President of Marketing and Business Development for the Dream, bringing over a decade of experience in sports marketing. She comes to the Dream from LifeWellness Institute in San Diego where she served as Vice President of Marketing and Client Relations.

At LifeWellness Institute, Blankenship was responsible for all marketing, sales and client relations for several health and wellness programs to professional athletes, individuals in the entertainment industry, executives and corporations.

Blankenship has extensive experience in marketing, advertising, media buying and event management for organizations including the San Diego Padres (Major League Baseball), San Diego Spirit (WUSA-Women's United Soccer Association), University of California Berkeley, San Diego State University and the Ogden Raptors (minor league baseball).

Blankenship was integral to the launch and success of the Spirit, where she served as the Director of Marketing and Community Relations from 2000-2003. In this role, she implemented and managed all aspects of marketing campaigns, grassroots marketing efforts and community events. Blankenship executed the marketing plan for the only sell-out in the history of the Women's Championship Soccer Game and was part of a front office team that led the league in season ticket sales for three consecutive years.

In 2004, Blankenship joined the Padres as Marketing Manager and Media Buyer, where she was responsible for all aspects of the day-to-day marketing and media promotions. She has also served as Assistant General Manager for the Ogden Raptors minor league baseball team and Assistant Director of Campus Recreation at the University of California Berkeley.

Blankenship earned a Bachelor of Science in Forensic Science from Weber State University where she also excelled on the soccer field, earning an athletic scholarship. Blankenship also has a Master of Arts in Sports Administration from San Diego State University. She resides in Atlanta with her husband Fred and their son, Fred Blankenship IV.

ALLISON FILLMORE

VP OF TICKET SALES/SERVICE

Allison Fillmore serves as the Vice President of Ticket Sales and Service for the Dream. Fillmore has extensive experience working in the Atlanta sports market, most recently as a Premium Seat Sales Executive and Ticket Sales Manager for the Atlanta Falcons (National Football League) and Georgia Force (Arena Football League).

From 2002-2006, Fillmore worked with the ticket sales staff of the Falcons and Force to generate new ticket sales and renewals in addition to managing corporate and special events. With the Falcons, Fillmore predominantly worked with the premium seat sales department, generating over $500k in revenue through club seats sales. During the 2006 Georgia Force season, Fillmore helped increase overall ticket sales by 44%.

Fillmore began her career as a Special Events Consultant for the Cleveland Lumberjacks of the International Hockey League. In 2001, she accepted a position as Group Sales Manager for Maloof Sports and Entertainment in Sacramento. In this role, Fillmore worked extensively with the WNBA's Sacramento Monarch. Her responsibilities included selling, coordinating and organizing events and group packages for the Monarchs, Sacramento Kings, Sacramento Knights and other ARCO Arena events.

Fillmore earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Sports Administration and Business from Ohio University in 1998. She resides in Atlanta with her husband Scott and their daughter, Taylor.

COACHING STAFF

MARYNELL MEADORS GENERAL MANAGER/HEAD COACH

General Manager and Head Coach Marynell Meadors makes her fourth stop in the WNBA, bringing with her more than 35 years of coaching experience. Meadors enters her second season as General Manager and Head Coach of the Dream, looking to turn around a team that finished 4-30 as an expansion team in 2008.

As General Manager of the Dream, Meadors has made some notable acquisitions, including the signings of six-time WNBA All-Star Chamique Holdsclaw and highly coveted free agent center Michelle Snow this offseason.

Prior to joining the Dream, Meadors spent the previous three seasons as an assistant coach for the Washington Mystics. There she helped head coaches Richie Adubato and Tree Rollins to an aggregate record of 50-52, including a playoff appearance in 2006. Meadors aided the Mystics' rapid turnaround in 2007 when the squad narrowly missed the playoffs - they were eliminated on the final day of the season - after an 0-8 start.

Meadors also served as the first General Manager and Head Coach of the now-defunct Charlotte Sting where she led the franchise to the playoffs in each of its first two seasons. She also served as the Sting's director of player and staff personnel.

Following her tenure with the Sting, Meadors moved south where she was hired as the director of scouting for the Miami Sol. With the Sol, her responsibilities included advanced scouting of opponents and player evaluations for the WNBA Draft.

Meadors has an extensive background in the women's college game. For two seasons prior to joining the Mystics, she served as an assistant coach for the University of Pittsburgh, focusing her efforts on recruiting, scheduling, scouting, academics and community involvement.

Meadors was a head coach at Florida State and Tennessee Tech for a combined 30 years. At Florida State, she quickly turned the program around from three straight losing seasons prior to her arrival. The apex of her tenure came in 1991 when the Seminoles won the Metro Conference Championship and advanced to second round of the NCAA Tournament where they fell to Western Kentucky. A year earlier, she drove the Seminoles to the NCAA Tournament, though the squad was unable to advance past the opening round.

Before heading to Florida State, Meadors earned her stripes at Tennessee Tech where she won more than 300 games as head coach. She was the first head coach of the women's basketball program and in her 20 years at the helm, she posted a school-record .723 winning percentage. During her tenure, she received numerous accolades, including two Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) Coach of the Year awards and a Metro Conference Coach of the Year award. While at Tennessee Tech, she steered her Golden Eagles squads to four OVC championships and two Metro Conference titles and became the first major women's college coach to win 350 games at one institution.

Meadors earned both her bachelor's and master's degrees from Middle Tennessee State University.

CAROL ROSS
ASSISTANT COACH

Carol Ross enters her first season as an Assistant Coach with the Dream, adding over 20 years of recruiting and collegiate coaching experience, most recently as the head coach of her alma mater, the University of Mississippi.

In Ross, the Dream acquires a coach with a history of turning programs around. Ross spent her first 12 seasons as head coach at the University of Florida, where she turned the Gators program into a powerhouse in the Southeastern Conference. The winningest coach in University of Florida history (247-121), Ross earned the 1994 SEC Coach of the Year award and was a finalist for the 2001 and 2002 Naismith National Coach of the Year award.

After revitalizing the Florida program, Ross returned to Ole Miss where she led the Rebels to postseason play in each of her four seasons at the helm. Her 2006-07 squad finished with its first 20 win season in over a decade en route to an appearance in the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament. Ross was a four-year starter at Ole Miss (1978-81) under Hall of Fame coach Van Chancellor and was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001.

In sixteen seasons as a head coach, Ross has coached in 12 NCAA Tournaments and two WNIT's. She has posted 20+ win seasons eight times and earned numerous accolades. Ross has also developed some of the WNBA's best talent, including 2007 Rookie of the Year Armintie Price and Olympian DeLisha Milton-Jones. Other notables she has coached include Merlakia Jones, Muriel Page and Sophia Witherspoon.

FRED WILLIAMS

ASSISTANT COACH

Fred Williams enters his second season as an assistant coach with the Dream, bringing more than 20 years of coaching and scouting experience.

Prior to joining the Dream staff, Williams served as the head coach of the San Diego Siege, a National Women's Basketball League (NWBL) team. In 2006, he was named NWBL Coach of the Year and led the Siege to a 15-5 record and a championship appearance.

Williams was also the head coach of the Utah Starzz (now the San Antonio Silver Stars). He led the Starzz from a 13-15 season in 1999 to playoff appearances in 2000 and 2001 with 18-14 and 19-13 seasons, respectively. He was also an assistant coach with the Charlotte Sting from 2003 until 2004.

In addition to his WNBA experience, Williams spent 10 years coaching at the University of Southern California (USC) as an assistant coach under Cheryl Miller (1983-1990) and as head coach (1995-1997). During the 1983-84 season, he helped guide USC to a national championship and in 1996-97, he led USC to a 20-9 record and a trip to the NCAA tournament. At USC, Williams worked with past and future WNBA players Cynthia Cooper, Lisa Leslie, Tina Thompson, and Adrian Williams.

In addition to his extensive coaching experience, Williams is a skilled recruiter who has brought in such players as Margo Dydek, career block leader; Jennifer Azzi, a former Olympian; and three-time WNBA All-Star Marie Ferdinand-Harris into his programs. He has also served as an advance scout for the NBA's Sacramento Kings and the Utah Jazz.

Williams is a graduate of Boise State University.

SUE PANEK

ASSISTANT COACH/DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Sue Panek enters her second season on the Dream coaching staff, where she serves a dual role as Assistant Coach and Director of Basketball Operations.

Prior to joining the Dream, Panek spent the previous seven years as head coach of the girls' basketball team at Olympic High School in Charlotte, North Carolina. She also has experience in the WNBA as an assistant coach with the Charlotte Sting (1997-2001) and as an advanced scout with the Washington Mystics (2005-2006).

Panek began her coaching career at Florida State University, where she was an assistant coach from 1993-1996. She then spent a year as an assistant at her alma mater, the University of Maryland, before accepting an assistant coaching position with the WNBA's Charlotte Sting (the team folded in 2007).

As an assistant on the Sting staff for five seasons, Panek's responsibilities included: college scouting, player development, scouting of opponents, coordinating team travel, equipment management, and clinician with the Junior Hornets/Sting Youth Basketball Program.

A member of the Maryland basketball team from 1988-1992, Panek helped the Terrapins to four straight NCAA tournament appearances, including a Final Four berth in 1989 and a trip to the Elite 8 in 1992. During her senior season, the Terrapins held the number one national ranking for four weeks.

Panek graduated with a Bachelor's of Science in Kinesiology from the University of Maryland. A native of Lilly, Pennsylvania, she currently resides in Atlanta.

HISTORY:

On April 24, 1996, women's basketball announced "We Got Next" as the NBA Board of Governors approved the concept of a Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) to begin play in June of 1997.

SINCE THAT DAY IN 1996 THERE HAVE BEEN MANY FIRSTS FOR THE WNBA:

Val Ackerman — the first president of the WNBA
Sheryl Swoopes — the first player signed to the WNBA
Cynthia Cooper — the league's first Most Valuable Player
Houston Comets — the first WNBA Champions
Lisa Leslie — the first WNBA player to dunk (7/30/02 vs. Miami)
Lauren Jackson — the first international player to win MVP (2007)
Candace Parker — the first rookie to earn the league's MVP honor (2008)
Sylvia Fowles — the first goaltending call (vs. LA 6/3/2008)

The inaugural WNBA season tipped off on June 21, 1997, with the New York Liberty taking on the Los Angeles Sparks at the Great Western Forum in Inglewood, California. A crowd of 14,284 watched as Sparks' guard Penny Toler scored the first basket in WNBA history. The Liberty defeated the Sparks, 67-57.

A GROWING GAME:

The influence of the WNBA can be seen in the explosive growth of organized women's basketball over the past twelve seasons. An estimated 100 million women play basketball worldwide, and our league reflects this trend, featuring 23 international players from 16 countries and territories at the end of the 2008 season. Female AAU youth basketball participation has increased +277% since 1990 (from 28,840 to 108,758 players). Female high school basketball participation has increased 18% since 1990 (from 387,802 to 456,967 players). And female NCAA basketball participation has increased 43% since 1990 (from 10,551 to 15,096 players).

KEY RULES:

Ball size: 28.5" (high school and NCAA women's)
3-point line: 20'6 1/4" (International)

Several key rule changes have been implemented over the last few seasons:

- The format of WNBA games changed to four 10-minute quarters instead of the previous two 20-minute halves.
- In addition, the 24-second shot clock replaced the previous 30-second clock. It is now reset to 14 seconds when a defensive foul or other defensive violation occurs with less than 14 seconds remaining on the shot clock. It is left unchanged when a defensive violation occurs with 14 seconds or more remaining on the shot clock.
- The backcourt rule requires offensive teams to bring the ball across the mid-court line within eight seconds rather than 10 seconds.
- The timeout rule requires officials to grant requests for a timeout (full or 20-second) by a player in the game or the head coach. Previously, only players in the game were allowed to call timeouts.
- Team rosters now consist of 11 players.

ALL-STAR GAME:

The 2009 WNBA All-Star Game will be held at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, CT on Saturday, July 25. ABC will televise the game which tips off at 3:30 p.m. ET.

In 2008, the WNBA did not hold an All-Star Game due to the month-long, mid-season break for Summer Olympics. The league did, however, conduct its annual All-Star Salute: Inspiring Women Luncheon in San Francisco on July 30. The luncheon, at which noted TV journalist Robin Roberts received the Inspiring Woman Award, also served as a send off for the U.S. Olympic Women's Basketball team. While the entire 12-member U.S. team was comprised of WNBA players, a total of 39 current and former WNBA players dotted the rosters of 10 of the 12 countries participating in the Olympics.

The 2007 WNBA All-Star Game, the league's eighth such contest, was played in front of a sellout audience on July 15 at the Verizon Center in Washington, D.C. A crowd of 19,487 fans witnessed the East defeat the West, 103-99 as Cheryl Ford of the Detroit Shock clinched the MVP honors. A key highlight of the All-Star festivities in 2007 was the second annual All-Star Salute: Inspiring Women Luncheon, featuring keynote speaker and Secretary of State Dr. Condoleezza Rice.

INSPIRING WOMEN:

The Inspiring Woman Award is an annual honor that celebrates an individual who, on a daily basis, demonstrates her ability to inspire others through her commitment, passion and dedication to work, family and community. Past honorees include Good Morning America's Robin Roberts, former Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice and the WNBA All-Decade Team.

MARKETING:

The WNBA has garnered unprecedented marketing support for a women's professional sport, and enjoys long-standing partnerships with major national and international brands such as adidas, Discover Card, Gatorade, Nike, and T-Mobile. New partners in 2008 included such major companies as McDonald's, Kia Motors, IHOP, Pitney Bowes and HP. Starwood Hotels and Resorts was announced as a partner in 2009.

The WNBA's marketing partners utilize the league to support women's sports and reach its strong fan base of women, families and young girls through advertising in WNBA nationally-televvised games, national promotions, player endorsements and special events.

Through the WNBA's extensive, highly integrated relationship with adidas, the sporting goods and apparel giant not only serves as the official outfitter of the WNBA - having unveiled new uniforms across the league in 2007 - but also as the presenter of the 2007, 2008 and 2009 WNBA Drafts and in 2008 became the first-ever presenting partner of the WNBA's entire postseason, including both the Playoffs and Finals.

The 2008 season also featured the first WNBA marketing partnership in China with Peak, China’s number one domestic basketball footwear brand, following the announcement in February.

ATTENDANCE /TV RATINGS:

Fueled by incoming stars Candace Parker, Sylvia Fowles and Candice Wiggins, the 2008 Draft, the most anticipated in WNBA history, drew significantly higher TV and Internet numbers. The rating on ESPN2 was up 69 percent over the previous year’s telecast, and viewership was up 137 percent. Similarly, WNBA.com shattered the all-time daily traffic record to the site during the WNBA Draft, with nearly 324,000 visits, more than doubling the previous record set during the 2007 Draft. Page views were up 127 percent; site visits increased 106 percent.

The WNBA on national television (ABC and ESPN2) finished up 19% both in ratings and viewership in 2008.

Regular season attendance in 2008 increased for the second straight season. The 2.21% increase came on the heels of a 1.68% increase in 2007. The increased attendance in 2008 also featured 46 sellouts, nearly triple the 17 registered in 2007 and double the previous record of 23 set in 2004.

Just one year earlier, total attendance for the 2007 WNBA Finals between the Phoenix Mercury and the Detroit Shock was 74,178, establishing a new all-time WNBA Finals record. In addition, Game 5’s crowd of 22,076 at The Palace of Auburn Hills tied the all-time, single-game attendance record for the WNBA Finals (also set on Sept. 16 2003 of the 2003 WNBA Finals, Los Angeles at Detroit). In addition, the WNBA experienced double-digit increases in viewership during the 2007 postseason.

Viewers recognize ESPN2 as the television destination for the WNBA. “WNBA Tuesdays” continued throughout the 2008 season, offering fans a dedicated night to tune in and watch their favorite WNBA players.

In July 2007, the WNBA signed a new, 8-year TV deal with ESPN that tips off in 2009 and runs through 2016, the WNBA’s 20th season. The agreement, which calls for ABC, ESPN and ESPN2 to telecast WNBA games, includes rights fees, a first for any women’s pro team sports league in the U.S.

GLOBAL REACH:

Now in its second decade, the WNBA has a wide impact on overseas markets. In 2008, for the second straight year, WNBA games and programming reached a record 203 countries in 32 languages, surpassing the 2006 total of 198 countries. Included were new television agreements in six countries: Argentina, Bulgaria, Jamaica, Pan Africa, South Korea and China. In addition, for the third consecutive year, fans in China were able to view WNBA action via live Web casts on NBA.com/china.

WNBA rosters for the 2008 season featured 25 international players from 17 countries and territories. Among the league’s international contingent are the Indiana Fever’s Tammy Sutton-Brown (Canada), the San Antonio Silver Stars’ Sophia Young (St. Vincent) and the Sacramento Monarchs’ Ticha Penicheiro (Portugal).

10TH ANNIVERSARY:

The WNBA’s 10th anniversary season, celebrated in 2006, featured significant interactivity with fans playing a key role in selecting the league’s All-Decade Team, the WNBA’s Greatest Moments and the starters for the 2006 WNBA All-Star Game.

The WNBA Greatest Moment presented by AOL.com was unveiled during Game 1 of the 2006 WNBA Finals. Fans, who were able to log on to www.aol.com/wnba, voted Teresa Weatherspoon’s half-court, buzzer-beater – a shot that propelled the New York Liberty to victory in Game 2 of the 1999 WNBA Finals and on to a deciding Game 3 against the Houston Comets – as their favorite moment in the WNBA’s 10-year history. Prior to that, initial voting was conducted in four distinct categories as fans voted for winners of the all-time Greatest Shot (Weatherspoon), Greatest Pass (Sue Bird of the Storm leading a fast break during the 2003 All-Star Game), Greatest Milestone (Lisa Leslie of the Sparks throwing down the first dunk in WNBA history on July 30, 2002) and Greatest Inspirational Moment (Edna Campbell of the Monarchs making a triumphant return to the court on Aug. 13, 2002, after battling breast cancer). The winner from each comprised the final ballot.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS:

Six WNBA teams now fall under the independent ownership model: the Atlanta Dream, Chicago Sky, Connecticut Sun, Los Angeles Sparks, Seattle Storm and Washington Mystics. Force 10 Hoops, L.L.C., the entity owned by Seattle businesswomen and civic leaders Anne Levinson, Ginny Gilder, Lisa Brummel and Dawn Trudeau, purchased the Seattle Storm on Feb. 28, 2008 while on Oct. 17, 2007, Atlanta businessman J. Ronald Terwilliger was awarded an expansion franchise, the Atlanta Dream. In addition, the Los Angeles Sparks opened the 2007 season with new ownership after Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson, two long-time season ticket holders, bought the Sparks on Dec. 7, 2006. They joined Sheila Johnson's Washington Mystics, Michael Alter's Chicago Sky and the Mohegan Tribe's Connecticut Sun as independently-owned WNBA franchises.

The 2008 WNBA Draft presented by adidas took place in Tampa, Florida on April 9, marking the third straight year the draft was held immediately following the NCAA Women's Division I Championship Game and conducted in the same city as the Final Four. The Los Angeles Sparks made Candace Parker the top overall pick; Sylvia Fowles was selected second by the Chicago Sky and Candice Wiggins third by the Minnesota Lynx. For the first time in WNBA history, all five starters from one college team were selected in the draft as Parker, Alexis Hornbuckle, Shannon Bobbitt, Nicky Anosike and Alberta Auguste - teammates on the University of Tennessee's national championship squad - were chosen. Parker would go on to be the first player to earn the WNBA's MVP award in her rookie season.

The Dawn Staley Community Leadership Award was announced in 2006 and is now presented annually to the player who best exemplifies the characteristics of a leader in the community and reflects Staley's contagious leadership, spirit, charitable efforts and love for the game. Tamika Catchings of the Indiana Fever won the inaugural award for the 2007 season. A member of the WNBA's All-Decade Team, Staley, who retired following the 2006 season, established herself as one of the greatest ambassadors in women's basketball history while also demonstrating outstanding leadership qualities as a coach on the collegiate level and as a philanthropist and humanitarian.

The WNBA All-Decade Team was selected in 2006 as part of a season-long celebration of the league's 10th Anniversary. Chosen from among 30 nominees by fans, a panel of national and WNBA-market media and the league's current players and coaches, the team is comprised of the 10 best and most influential players from its first 10 years of play. Named to the team were legends and current players including, Sue Bird, Tamika Catchings, Cynthia Cooper, Yolanda Griffith, Lauren Jackson, Lisa Leslie, Katie Smith, Dawn Staley, Sheryl Swoopes and Tina Thompson. Players earning honorable mention status were: Ruthie Bolton, Chamique Holdsclaw, Ticha Penicheiro, Diana Taurasi and Teresa Weatherspoon. Van Chancellor, who led the Houston Comets to consecutive WNBA championships in the league's first four seasons, was named the WNBA's Coach of Decade. Chancellor also was named to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2007.

Seven women serve as owners of WNBA teams: Dr. Sheila Johnson (Washington Mystics), Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson (Los Angeles Sparks) and Anne Levinson, Ginny Gilder, Lisa Brummel and Dawn Trudeau (Seattle Storm). An eighth, musical artist Michelle Williams, formerly of "Destiny's Child," is a minority owner of the Chicago Sky.

Johnson, a co-founder of Black Entertainment Television, became the WNBA's first African-American female owner on May 24, 2005 when she joined Ted Leonsis' Lincoln Holdings LLC, which in turn purchased the Washington Mystics from Washington Wizards' owner Abe Pollin. Williams, also African-American and a former member of the group "Destiny's Child," became the first female musician to become part-owner of a professional sports team, joining the company of Jay-Z (NBA New Jersey Nets), Usher (NBA Cleveland Cavaliers), Nelly (NBA Charlotte Bobcats), Julio Iglesias (NBA Miami Heat) and Jon Bon Jovi (AFL Philadelphia Soul).

In 2008, Candace Parker became the first WNBA player to win Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player of the Year in the same season. The first selection in the 2008 WNBA Draft, she earned both honors after leading the league in double-doubles and rebounds per game, while also ranking second in blocks per game and fourth in points per game. She also became just the second player joining Lisa Leslie, to dunk in a WNBA game.

GENERAL INFO	Diana Taurasi (Mercury) rewrote the WNBA scoring records in 2006 when she led the league with 25.3 points per contest, became the first WNBA player to top 800 points in a single season (860), and the single-season mark for three-point field goals (121) and the single-game mark for points (47, a number later equaled by the Storm's Lauren Jackson in 2007).	Three current head coaches have played in the NBA: Michael Cooper (Sparks), Bill Laimbeer (Shock), and Corey Gaines (Mercury).
MEDIA INFO		Three current head coaches have served as assistant coaches in the NBA, including Mike Thibault (Sun); Michael Cooper (Sparks) and Don Zierden (Lynx).
FRONT OFFICE	During the 2008 season, Tina Thompson (Houston) and Katie Smith (Detroit) both reached 5,000 points for their WNBA careers, joining Lisa Leslie as the only players to accomplish this feat.	WNBA CARES: Through the WNBA Cares initiative, the league is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on promoting a healthy lifestyle and positive body image, breast health awareness, youth and family development, and education. WNBA teams and players donate countless dollars and hours each year through league programs including Breast Health Awareness, WNBA Green Week and Go Red For Women, WNBA Fit, Read to Achieve and Jr. WNBA.
PLAYERS	Sheryl Swoopes, who earned MVP and Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2000 and 2002, made WNBA history with the league's first triple-double (14 points, 15 rebounds, 10 assists) vs. the Detroit Shock on July 27, 1999.

COMMUN

WNBA CARES

Through WNBA Cares, the WNBA is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on programs which promote a healthy lifestyle and positive body image, increase breast and women's health awareness, support youth and family development, and focus on education.

WNBA FIT

WNBA Fit encourages girls and women of all ages to learn more about their bodies and the importance of physical fitness through programs related to health, fitness, nutrition and self-esteem. Programming inspires girls and women to get started on "being fit" through small changes in their daily routine. The content of the program is communicated and delivered through a 'Team' of Spokespeople and National and Local Events.

GO RED FOR WOMEN

The WNBA and the American Heart Association have formed an alliance to promote the Go Red for Women campaign. GRFW encourages women to learn more about heart health, and raises awareness of the risks of heart disease in women.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

For twelve years, the WNBA Breast Health Awareness program has focused on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative. The WNBA and its teams have raised over $2 million to aid in the fight against breast cancer.

WNBA GREEN

The WNBA is committed to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment. The WNBA Greening Initiative is an innovative program designed to reduce the environmental impact of the league's operations and events.

READ TO ACHIEVE

Read to Achieve is a year-round, league-wide initiative supported by NBA, WNBA and NBA D-League teams that promotes the values of reading and on-line literacy and encourages families and adults to read regularly with young children. The program includes special reading time-outs, the donation of books and literacy materials to schools and community based organizations, and the creation of Reading and Learning Centers and Reading Corners throughout the world.

JR. WNBA

By stressing fundamental skill development, teamwork, sportsmanship and positive adult participation, the Jr. WNBA aims to develop a life-long passion for the game of basketball by providing a support structure that not only encourages participation, but also makes the game fun and rewarding for players, coaches, officials and parents. The Jr. WNBA believes that lessons learned on- and off-the-court as a member of a team are lessons that are useful in building relationships at school, home and work.

PARTNERSHIPS

In reaching our community relations goals, the WNBA is proud to partner with the following organizations:

- American Cancer Society
- American Red Cross
- Feed the Children
- Girls Inc.
- Habitat for Humanity
- KaBOOM!
- Make-A-Wish Foundation

DREAM IN THE COMMUNITY

www.wnba.com/dream/community

THE DREAM FOUNDATION: The Dream Foundation, a nonprofit charity, supports community programs and non-profit organizations in the Atlanta area focusing on girls, women and children. The operations of the Dream Foundation are guided by the expertise of the Board (Stacey Abrams, Bill Bolen, Bob Hope, A.J. Robinson and Beth Schapiro) and Atlanta Dream front office employees.

BE FIT CLINICS: As an advocate for healthy living, the Atlanta Dream is dedicated to providing support to non-profit organizations committed to health and wellness. To encourage youth to incorporate physical fitness into their daily lives, the Dream conducts "Be Fit" clinics at elementary schools, afterschool programs and recreation centers in the metro Atlanta area.

"DREAM BIG, PLAY BIG" CAMPS AND CLINICS: Throughout the year, the Atlanta Dream conducts a variety of basketball clinics. During the offseason, the Dream host satellite clinics for boys and girls ages 10-18 emphasizing basketball fundamentals. The clinics are conducted at sites across the state of Georgia.

"DREAM PINK" BREAST CANCER AWARENESS: Dream Pink is an initiative focusing on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer. Each season, the Dream hosts a "Dream Pink" game during which all game and entertainment elements are built around the theme of breast cancer awareness. This year's game is scheduled for August 15 against Seattle. **

HIGH SCHOOL HALFTIME MANIA: During high school basketball season, the Atlanta Dream brings the halftime excitement of a professional game to local girls basketball games. Eight high schools are selected to have the "Dream" halftime experience brought alive at their own high school gym.

MARCH OF DIMES: Atlanta Dream players, coaches and staff will participate in the March for Babies at Centennial Olympic Park in support of the March of Dimes' mission to ensure a healthy future for all babies. The Dream designates a game annually as the March of Dimes celebration game. This year's game is scheduled for June 19, 2009 vs. Washington. **

NOTHING BUT NETS: Nothing But Nets is a global grassroots campaign to save lives by preventing malaria, a leading killer of children in Africa. Every 30 seconds, a child in Africa dies from malaria. You can save a life. The Dream encourages individuals to donate $10 to “send a net, save a life.” The Dream will host its annual “Nothing But Nets” game on July 3, 2009 vs. Washington. **

POWER OF GIRLS MENTORING PROGRAM: The first program of its kind in the WNBA, the Power of Girls mentoring program is designed to introduce adolescent girls to positive female role models. Each spring, 13 girls are selected for the program and receive one-on-one interaction with Dream players, Shooting Stars, and Dream staff. The girls participate in workshops and social outings that improve their awareness of both themselves and the society in which they live.

PLAYER APPEARANCES: Atlanta Dream players make over 200 appearances in the community each year. Dream players can be found all across the metro Atlanta area, whether it’s building a house with Habitat for Humanity, reading to elementary school students, visiting local hospitals or encouraging youth to get fit. Appearance requests must be approved by the Dream Community Relations Department.

TICKET DONATIONS: The Atlanta Dream supports other non-profit organizations in our community by contributing tickets to be used for non-profit organizations that support underserved children. To request a ticket donation from the Atlanta Dream for your non-profit organization, please send us a letter on your organization’s letterhead and a copy of your 501c3 form.

SHOOTING STARS CHEER TEAM

The Shooting Stars cheer team is a diverse group of dancers, ages 18 and over, who perform at all Atlanta Dream home games throughout the season. Selected by a panel of judges each spring, the Shooting Stars are composed of 12 females and 5 males, combining years of professional cheer and dance experience with an eclectic mix of styles. In addition to providing the on-court entertainment, the Shooting Stars also make an impact off the court, serving as community ambassadors in the Atlanta area.

The Shooting Stars are led by coordinator Brandi Nunnally, who enters her second season with the Dream. Brandi brings nine years of dance and cheer experience to the program and has cheered professionally with the Atlanta Falcons of the NFL and the Georgia Force of the Arena Football League. In college, she served as the captain of the nationally ranked Division II Carson-Newman College squad and was awarded the team's 100% Award. Brandi also brings eight years of coaching experience to the Shooting Stars, having coached all-star cheerleading gymnastics and competitive cheerleading.

For more information on the Shooting Stars, please visit www.AtlantaDream.net or e-mail ShootingStars@atlantadream.net.

STAR (MASCOT)

STAR, THE DREAM MASCOT

Star, Atlanta's newest and hippest mascot, was just a twinkle in its mother's eye when Star's parents fell in love with Atlanta's warm southern hospitality during a stop on their way south for the winter. As huge women's basketball fans, they decided to stay in Atlanta on October 17, 2007 after hearing there would be a WNBA team in the city. They made their home in downtown Atlanta and watched the team prepare for its Inaugural Season. Their family was complete when Star hatched on May 1, 2008 at Zoo Atlanta!

When Star's parents realized that Star had inherited their love of basketball, they encouraged Star to try out to be the mascot for their hometown's new team. Recognizing Star's passion for the sport, the Dream brought Star on to the team just in time for the Inaugural Season Home Opener on May 23, 2008.

You can find Star throughout the community with Dream players at WNBA Cares events and celebrating birthdays with fans. Star's favorite place to be is at Atlanta Dream home games at Philips Arena! Star loves cheering on the team, inspiring future WNBA players, interacting with the crowd, entertaining fans and sharing the Dream with the city!

PHILIPS ARENA

PHILIPS ARENA

1 Philips Dr.
Atlanta, GA 30303

Widely considered one of the top venues in the world, Philips Arena serves as the home to more than 200 sports and entertainment events annually. The Atlanta Hawks of the NBA and the Atlanta Thrashers of the NHL play their home games at Philips Arena. The arena is owned and operated by Atlanta Spirit, LLC. and is sponsored by Philips Electronics, for which it was named.

Located in the heart of downtown Atlanta, Philips Arena adjoins the CNN Center and is easily accessible via MARTA public transportation. On the exterior, angled steel columns in the grand entrance spell out "ATLANTA" in 65-foot high illuminated letters.

Since its completion in 1999, Philips Arena has earned numerous accolades in the entertainment industry. The venue was named the No. 3 concert and events venue in the United States and No. 8 worldwide by Pollstar magazine, based on attendance figures.

Recent sporting events held at Philips Arena include the 2008 NHL All-Star Game, the 2004 U.S. Figure Skating Championships and the 2003 NBA All-Star Game.
